

Early Korea-Japan Interactions: New Perspectives on Old Issues

Schedule

Day 1 (May 3) - Room S250, CGIS South Bldg., 1730 Cambridge Street

- 9:00      Introductory Comments
- 9:15      Exchanges between Southern Korea and Kyushu Viewed from Tombs Containing Bronze Mirrors - With the Focus on the Fourth to First Centuries BC
LEE Chungkyu, Professor, Department of Cultural Anthropology, Yeungnam University
Discussant: Rowan Flad, Harvard University
- 11:15     Break
- 12:30     Interaction between the Korean Peninsula and the Japanese Archipelago during the Yayoi Period
IWANAGA Shozo, Professor, Kyushu University Museum, Kyushu University
Discussant: Gina Barnes, SOAS, University of London
- 2:30      Break
- 2:45      Historical Interaction between Paekche and Japan in the Third to Sixth Centuries AD: Based on Patterns of Trade and Exchange
WOO Jae Pyoung - Professor, Department of Archaeology, Chungnam National University
Discussant: Jonathan Best, Wesleyan University

Day 2 (May 4) - Room S153, CGIS South Bldg., 1730 Cambridge Street

- 9:00      Introductory Comments
- 9:15      Ancient Western Japan and the Korean Peninsula
KAMEDA Shuichi - Professor, Department of History, Okayama University of Science
Discussant: William Wayne Farris, University of Hawai'i
- 11:15     Break
- 12:30     Cultural Exchange between the Korean Peninsula and the Japanese Archipelago between the Third and Sixth Centuries
PARK Cheun Soo - Professor, Department of Archaeology, Kyungpook National University.
Discussant: C.C. Lamberg-Karlovsky, Harvard University
- 2:30      Break
- 2:45      Japan-Korea Interaction Viewed from Eastern Japan during the Kofun Period
HABUTA Yoshiyuki - Professor, Department of History, Senshu University.
Discussant: Walter Edwards, Nara National Research Institute for Cultural Properties